Privacy Notice for Learners & Parents

1 PURPOSE

- 1.1 Individuals have a legal right to be informed about how we use their personal information. This Privacy Notice explains how we collect, store and use personal information. It is intended for Learners and parents (including carers or guardians who we refer to in this privacy notice as 'parents') and we encourage all to read it.
- 1.2 We aim to always provide clear information about the personal information we are using and why we are using it. We have tried to keep the language in this privacy notice as simple as possible, however, if anything is unclear or if you have any concerns then please contact data.protection@weston.ac.uk.
- 1.3 Whilst much of the personal information that we collect is mandatory (i.e. it must be provided so that we can manage the college, fulfil our legal obligations and provide an education), some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. Where this is the case, we will request consent at the point we collect the information. We will explain to you whether there is a requirement to provide certain information to us, or whether you have a choice in doing so.
- 1.4 For the purposes of data protection law, Weston College Group is the 'data controller'. Our Data Protection Officer is Dr Darran George, contact details are provided at the end of this privacy notice.

2 SCOPE

- 2.1 This is Weston College Groups main 'overarching' privacy notice and it applies generally to the personal information that we collect and use. It is based on the model privacy notice produced for schools & colleges by the Department for Education (DfE). Unless there is a lawful reason not to do so, we will also provide more specific privacy information at the point at which we collect or use personal information, for example, if we collect personal data via an online or paper form.

3 PERSONAL INFORMATION WE HOLD

- 3.1 We process personal information to be able to run Weston College Group, to provide learners with an education and to make sure that we can look after our learners appropriately. We may collect information directly from learners or parents or other places including schools, the local council and the Department for Education (DfE). Examples of the types of personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) are listed in Appendix 1.

4 LAWFUL REASONS FOR PROCESSING

- 4.1 Data Protection law requires us to have a lawful reason ('lawful basis') for processing the personal data we use. These reasons are listed under Article 6 of the 'UK General Data Protection Regulation' (UK-GDPR). Our lawful basis for processing will be explained at the point at which we collect personal information unless there is a lawful reason not to do so (for example where it is for the prevention or detection of crime).
- 4.2 Weston College Group processes a wide range of personal data for a variety of purposes, as described above. The lawful bases we rely on will therefore vary. However, generally, the lawful bases we mainly use concerning Learners and parents are:
- 4.3 We need to comply with the law (we have a legal obligation):
 - For example, we collect and use pupil information under legal and statutory obligations within the
 - Education Act 1996
 - The Children Act 2004
 - Education and Inspections Act 2006
 - Education Act 2011
 - the Family and Children Act 2014
 - Keeping Children Safe in Education (KCSIE)

Privacy Notice for Learners & Parents

- 4.4 We need to carry out a task in the public interest:
For example, the collection and use of learner information is necessary for us to perform our role as a College and to deliver our public task of providing education to our learners.
- 4.5 You have given us your consent
For example, a photo of you for promotional purposes or our website.
- 4.6 We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests).
This relates to life and death situations.
- 4.7 It is in our or a third party's legitimate business interests to process the data.
Where this is the case, we will ensure that we have considered whether our legitimate interests are overridden by your rights and freedoms as the learner or parent.
- 4.8 Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so. We will then cease this aspect of processing.
- 4.9 Some of the reasons that we use for collecting and using information may overlap and there may be several grounds allowing us to use personal data. Other lawful bases may apply, and this will be made clear wherever possible.
- 4.10 Our lawful basis for processing will be explained at the point at which we collect personal information unless there is a lawful reason not to do so (for example where it is for the prevention or detection of crime).

5 SPECIAL CATEGORY (SENSITIVE) PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 5.1 We may also collect, store, and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data which has extra protection in law and requires us to identify a condition for processing under Article 9 of the UK-GDPR.
- 5.2 Special category data is personal data revealing:
- racial or ethnic origin
 - political opinions
 - religious or philosophical beliefs
 - trade union membership
 - genetic data
 - biometric data to uniquely identify a natural person (for example fingerprints)
 - data concerning health; or
 - data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation
- 5.3 The Article 9 grounds which we may rely on to process special category data include:
- Legal obligation
 - Substantial public interest including:
 - Statutory and government purposes
 - Equality of opportunity or treatment
 - Preventing and detecting unlawful acts
 - Preventing fraud
 - Public Health
 - Safeguarding
 - Support for individuals with a particular disability or medical condition
 - Explicit consent, for example to the use of biometric data, eg fingerprints.
 - To maintain your vital interests

Privacy Notice for Learners & Parents

- 5.4 Please refer to our special category of data policy which forms part of our data protection policy for further information.

6 CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

- 6.1 We may process data about criminal convictions or offences. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations, to exercise our rights, to look after our learners and staff or to support the police and other relevant agencies.
- 6.2 We will only use information about criminal convictions or offences where the law allows us to.
- 6.3 Usually, this will either be based on our legal obligations concerning safeguarding, preventing fraud, health and safety or with your consent. We also need to identify the relevant condition for the processing, this will usually be substantial public interest.

7 COLLECTING PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 7.1 The reasons that we collect and use personal information enable us to provide our learners with an education and to help us run the college. Please refer to Appendix 2 for examples.
- 7.2 We collect and use information about you in a variety of ways including through the college's application and admissions process, from correspondence with you and through assessing learners' educational progress. How we collect information about you may also include methods as outlined in Appendix 3.
- 7.3 We may also collect information about you from third parties such as information from schools or other third parties engaging with you outside the college

8 SHARING PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 8.1 Information about learners and parents will not be shared with any third party without consent unless the law allows us to do so. Where it is legally required or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) personal information may be shared with the relevant local authority to meet our legal obligations to share information such as safeguarding concerns or with the Department for Education (DfE).
- 8.2 To find out more about the data collection requirements that are placed upon us by the DfE including the data that we share with them go to: <http://esfahelp.education.gov.uk>
- 8.3 We do not use data for profiling, and only for marketing if you have opted in e.g. to our newsletter.
- 8.4 Further examples of with whom we share data are listed in Appendix 4

9 STORING PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 9.1 Personal data is stored in line with our Information Security Management System, Information Security Policy & IT Security Policy in a range of different places including within Weston College IT systems, within Weston College Office 365 tenancy and other Weston College cloud-based systems.
- 9.2 The information that we create and maintain is kept secure. Once a pupil's education with us has ended, we may retain such information beyond their attendance at the college as deemed necessary and in line with our retention policies.

10 INTERNATIONAL TRANSFER OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Privacy Notice for Learners & Parents

10.1 Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the UK and European Economic Area, we will do so following data protection law and ensure that we have sufficient safeguards in place.

11 REQUESTING ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

11.1 Individuals have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. This is known as making a 'Subject Access Request' (SAR). If you make a subject access request, and if we hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form within a month, unless an extension is necessary on the ground of the complexity of the request

11.2 You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances. If you would like to make a request, please contact data.protection@weston.ac.uk.

11.3 Those with parental responsibility can submit a request concerning their child's data where the child is not considered mature enough to understand their rights over their own data (a benchmark may be under the age of 12 however this will be judged by the college on a case by case basis), or where the child has provided consent and it is considered to be in the best interests of the child.

11.4 Parents have the right to make a subject access request concerning personal data the college holds about themselves. If you would like to make a request please contact data.protection@weston.ac.uk.

12 OTHER RIGHTS

12.1 Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- To request to have personal data rectified, if you believe that it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- To request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
- To restrict our processing of personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing) under certain circumstances.
- To object to processing if we are processing your information as part of our public tasks, or based on our legitimate business interests, in which case we will consider your objection, and balance this against our need to process the information.
- To object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for scientific/historical research and statistics.
- To withdraw your consent to the processing
- To have personal information, which you have provided, transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.
- Not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect - unless you have agreed or in other limited circumstances.
- A right to seek redress, either through the ICO or through the courts

13 CONTACTS & COMPLAINTS

13.1 We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.
